From the Editor:

Change and growth...these two words best describe what's been happening at Manor Junior College this past year. The most significant change that occured is the naming of Sr. Mary Cecilia, former dean of students at Manor, to the position of President of Manor Junior College. The entire Manor Community is pleased that Sr. Cecilia, a Manor alumna, was named as successor to Sr. Miriam Claire, who assumed the Office of Provincial of the Order of Sisters of Sr. Basil the Great.

Change and growth have also occured in other areas with new programs and facilities such as the Learning Lab, and additional support staff.

Additional changes and growth are yet to come as Manor Junior College attempts to meet still new challenges. Some of these new challenges are detailed in the New Capital Campaign objectives. If you have not received any Campaign literature on Manor's Special Future Fund, please contact the Development Office and they will be happy to discuss the Campaign with you.

I was pleased to receive a first-place Award for promotion-publicity for a complete report for the Manorama in the 1985 Communications Contest of the National Federation of Press Women, Pennsylvania Press Club Affilitate. While I appreciate this honor, I know that continued success requires feedback...so I would appreciate your comments about Manorama so that I can continue to improve this publication and move Manor Junior College further on our road to progress. Enjoy this issue...happy reading.

Campus Ministry Serves Students, Community

The Campus Ministry program of Manor Junior College seeks to build a faith community through recognizing and enhancing the religious, community and social spirit within the school. Campus Ministry, headed by Director of Campus Ministry, Joseph Stoutzenberger, sponsors a variety of activities throughout the school year. Activities planned for the 1985-86 Academic year include:

Weekly prayer services held every Wednesday at noon in the Campus Chapel.

Monthly movies.

A Red Cross blood drive twice a year.

Campaigns to raise money for world hunger and local charities.

Retreat programs, and speakers on social issues.

St. Nicholas' Gift for the Poor Collection and Prayer Service will be held December 6.

Manor Opens New Learning Center

A new Learning Center has been opened by Manor Junior College to aid students in improving their study skills and to maintain their high standard of academic excellence.

The Center, coordinated by Dr. Madeline Seltzer, chairperson of the Liberal Arts Division and English Department and Marylou Delizia, director of counseling, began operation September 16.

Students come to the Center for additional help with writing and reading classes, and other coursework problems, explained Dr. Seltzer. Long-range plans include a tutor for every course offered at Manor, Dr. Seltzer said.

The Center is staffed by Robert Ott, English instructor at Manor, and Donna Macphee, a part-time Center employee. Students, volunteers from the faculty and Manor's student honor societies will tutor at the Learning Center.

Students come to the Center by three different routes. One is by recognizing that they need help in a particular course; another is by the suggestion of an instructor, and the third is by the mandatory referral by an instructor. In the last case, a student must attend the Center in order to pass the course.

Dr. Seltzer explained that Manor's new Center is a dream come true and has been fashioned after learning labs at other colleges. She also said that by helping students in the Center, there is a greater chance that they will be able to successfully attain their academic goals.

The Leaning Center is open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday to Thursday and by appointment on evenings and weekends.

President's Message

Dear Friend of Manor:

As Manor Junior College's new President, I am overwhelmed and thankful for the support you have given me personally and for the generous financial support you have given to Manor during the fiscal year 1984-85. Your outpouring of love and good wishes to me when I assumed this new position on July 1, 1985 is only surpassed by your deep commitment to Manor and your generous gift giving. May God Bless each one of you.

On December 2, 1984, Manor Junior College announced a three-year Capital Campaign to raise $2 million to develop the college campus and provide for further program development. Many of you have already responded to this challenge and have made contributions specifically to further this continual growth of Manor as an academic institution. I thank you most sincerely for your sacrifices and gifts of love.

As an expression of thanks for your support and belief in the mission of Manor, we have arranged a Novena of Liturgies to be offered for you and your special intentions.

I pray that the Heavenly Father, who guides us all, will continue to bless you and bring to your life happiness and continued Christian love.

Sincerely in Christ,

Sister Mary Cecilia, OSBM
President,
Manor Junior College

Manor's Special Future Fund

Manor Junior College's Special Future Fund Capital Campaign to raise $2 million dollars got off to a good start with a "kick-off" reception on December 2, 1984. Former Phillie Baseball team pitcher, Tug McGraw, was the master of ceremonies for the event. With McGraw is Mrs. Deborah Sasso, wife of Attorney William Sasso, Manor Junior College's chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Слово Президентки

Дорогі Приятелі Менору:

Як нова президентка Менору, я є щиро зворушена і вдячна за Вашу піддержку, яку Ви дали мені особисто і за Вашу щедру фінансову піддержку Менору у фіскальному році 1984-85. Ваше виявлення любови і щирих побажань для мене, коли я переняла цей новий пост 1 липня 1985 р., може перевищити лише Ваше глибоке зобов'язання і щедрі дотації для Менору. Нехай Господь благословить кожного з Вас зокрема!

2-го грудня 1984 р. Менор Джуніор Коледж проголосив три-річну Головну Кампанію, щоб здобути 2 мільйони долярів для розбудови кампусу і постачання дальшої програми розбудови. Багато з Вас вже відгукнулися на цей визов і зложили датки специфічно на продовження сталого зросту Менору, як освітньої установи. Я дякую Вам якнайщиріше за Ваші пожертви і дари любови.

Як вияв подяки за Вашу піддержку і віру у місію Менору, за Вас і у Ваших особливих наміреннях буде відправлена Дев'ятниця Святих Літургій.

Я молюся, щоб Небесний Отець, який провадить нас, благословив Вас і вніс у Ваше життя щастя та сталу християнську любов.

Вдячна в Христі,

Сестра Марія Кекилія, ЧСВВ
Президент,
Менор Джуніор Коледж
